GRATEFUL PRAISE

A COLLECTION OF

New Songs for the Sunday-School.

BY J. H. FILLMORE.

FILLMORE BROTHERS, Publishers,

Copyright, 1884, by Fillmore Brothers.

PREFACE

HOW desirable it is to have a collection of Sunday-school songs that charm and delight us, and songs in which both children and adults heartily join with a feeling of mutual interest! And further, how desirable, after the novelty may have worn off, to find that the songs are full of thought and meaning, and every way worthy of our minds and hearts as expressions of praise and worship: thus becoming to us more than we at first anticipated—even becoming to us helps to duty and to development of character!

Such a collection I have endeavored to make GRATEFUL PRAISE. For me to hint at a degree of success will not be taken as immodest when I call attention to the work of its contributors, for they appear on every page; and when they have not furnished the page wholly, they have furnished the inspiration of it. I take this occasion to thank them heartily, and I am sure all will be grateful who sing their songs.

If any special feature abounds in the collection, it is expressions of praise to God and Christ. I hope that all who sing from it, may thus sing in the spirit of "Grateful Praise."

 2. The tempest may rage and the hur - ri - cane roar, Yea, the wind and the tor - rents de - scend,
 3. The king - dom of God is now o - pen to all, E'en the vi - lest may now en - ter in;

It is built on a rock and the Lord is its King, And fore - ver and ev - er he reigns.
 And the strong gates of hell may as - sail it in vain, For the kingdom shall stand till the end.
 There's a welcome for all who will turn to the Lord, Full sal - va - tion and par - don for sin.

It shall stand, It shall stand, For - ev - er and ev - er and ev - er,
 It shall stand, It shall stand, It shall stand;

It shall stand, it shall stand, It shall stand, it shall stand, For - ev-er and ev-er. A-men and A-men.

This musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. It features a melody with several triplet markings. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment with chords and some triplet markings.

The musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The lyrics are written below the upper staff.

Praise the Lord.

D. R. LUCAS.

Serve the Lord with gladness.—Psalm 100.

J. H. RHEEM.

1. Serve the Lord with gladness, Come be-fore his throne, Ban-ish all your sadness, Make his glories known;
2. Hap-pi-ness de-sir-ing, Loud the anthem raise, Heart and voice in-spir-ing With this song of praise;
3. Let the sound vic-to-ri-ous Ech-o loud and free; Praise the Lord most glorious, Hail the ju-bi-lee;

The musical score is in 4/4 time. It features a melody in the upper staff and a bass line in the lower staff. The lyrics are placed between the two staves.

Let your song be joy-ful, Jesus' praise proclaim, Glo-ry ev-er-last-ing To his ho-ly name.
Mel-o-dy cre-at-ing, With u-nit-ed voice, Ev-ery heart e-lat-ing, In the Lord re-joice.
Grandly with thank-giving Let the cho-rus ring: Lord of all the liv-ing, Our triumphant King.

This section continues the musical score from the previous block, with the same two-staff format and lyrics.

The Pillar of Fire.

And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light.—Exodus 13: 21.
 H. R. TRICKETT, Arr. and comp. by J. H. F.

1. Our tents are all fold-ed, we're read - y to march, We will move when our God shall command;
2. Our God is our shield, and our strength, and our sun, And he gives us both glo - ry and grace;
3. Our hair has grown gray and our eyes have grown dim, We have witnessed the chang-ing of years,
4. On, on with our journey, the Jor - dan is near, And we soon shall pass o - ver and rest;

And no dan - ger shall stop us, we'll joy - ful - ly haste Till we en - ter the beau-ti - ful land.
 No good thing will be keep from the fee - blest of those Who both fear him and seek his dear face.
 But our God has his cov - e - nant faith - ful - ly kept, And the past shall dis - pel all our fears.
 For no swell - ings of Jor - dan shall hin - der our souls, March on - ward, God's way is the best.

CHORUS.

On - ward, ye saints, for our God is our light, March on - ward, he points us the way; For he is a pil - lar of fire by night, And a pil - lar of cloud by day.

The musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes.

The musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. It contains the vocal melody with lyrics underneath. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment. A 'Rit.' (Ritardando) marking is placed above the final measure of the upper staff.

1. Where life's crystal stream doth flow, And the tree of life doth bloom, Where no chilling frost can fall,
 2. There the good a-gain shall meet, Who have clasped the parting hand; Fathers, mothers, children dear,
 3. Where no signs of age are seen, And they nev-er sorrow more, Where no sickness e'er can come,

On flow'rs that sweetly bloom; Where the glo-ry of the Lord Shines thro' all the cloud-less skies,
 Around the throne shall stand; There no tem-pest e'er shall blow, There no dis-mal cloud a-rise,
 Where death has lost his power, Where they feel no weight of care, And no tears be-dim the eyes;

CHORUS.

There, as end-less a-ges roll, Shall be no more good-byes. No more good-byes, no more good-
 And in that e-ternal home Shall be no more good-byes.
 All the good shall meet again, And speak no more good-byes. No more good-byes, byes, . . . . O, blessed thought! . . . . No more good-byes; Midst the glo-ry of the Lord,

 No more good-byes, O, blessed thought!

In that home be-yond the skies, Where the end-less a-ges roll, Shall be no more good-byes.

From all that Dwell Below the Skies.

1. From all that dwell below the skies, Let the Redeemer's name be sung
 Let the Creator's praise arise; Through every land, by every tongue.
 2. Eternal are thy mercies, Lord; Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore
 Eternal truth attends thy word; Till suns shall rise and set no more.
